Laura Morris

Last year, in spite of the extremely dry weather,, this wonderful new dahlia proved to be the finest in our gardens. The color is a rich deep yellow with amber back petals, fine form and long stiff cane-like stems. We believe this variety will become the most popular one of its color. Price per tuber $1.00

Terms and Conditions

Cash in full should accompany order, or 25 per cent. with order, balance C. O. D.

Tubers will be shipped postpaid at proper time for planting.

All tubers guaranteed to be strong, healthy divisions of field-grown clumps, and to be absolutely true to name. Any proving otherwise will be replaced free of charge.

As to our responsibility, we refer to the First State Savings Bank, of Otsego, Michigan.

All who are interested in fine dahlias are cordially invited to visit our gardens during blooming season.
